

We had the pleasure of having Norsang as our guide during our recent trek to Annapurna Base Camp in March 2008; there were 6 of us (Barb Repcen, Heather Steen, Melanie Hammelman, Nikki Foo, Jeanette Waters and Christopher Hurren) in the group. Having an individual guide and not being part of a larger group was ideal; we were able to change the route to suit our requests.

Norsang was very professional, organised and thorough throughout the trek, every day ran smoothly. Norsang was very tuned into our needs and any limitations we had. He is very personable and has a very cheerful personality. Norsang and the porters had a vast knowledge of the trekking route and the mountains and they were very willing to share it. When we returned to Pokhara and Kathmandu Norsang continued to guide us around the tourist areas and shared his love of Nepal with us. We got to see a lot more of the culture and sights of Nepal than we would have been able to see if we were on our own.

Really with Norsang nothing is too much trouble he is really a very genuine and likeable guy. Some of us intend to return to Nepal and do another trek with Norsang we all look forward to seeing him again.

I am happy for anyone to contact me if they need a reference for Norsang on addresses:
